No-Cost, Online Divorce Options® Workshop
for Couples Contemplating Divorce &
the Professionals Who Guide Them

When trust deteriorates, your spouse is more likely to hear reasonable options from professionals. There is no advantage to attending alone, as you must decide together how you will divorce. Set the tone for good will by inviting your spouse to attend and receive information to allow you to make a joint decision with your budget and values in mind.

When couples' therapy fails, are you a therapist, financial advisor or other professional prepared to direct your clients' immediate next steps? Therapists and financial advisors not specializing in divorce find our workshops extremely helpful. We also offer Divorce Options® at no cost to specific groups of ten or more, e.g. financial firms, church groups, mental health/substance abuse clinics (for clinicians as well as clients).

LEARN the EMOTIONAL, FINANCIAL & LEGAL
PROS & CONS of the 4 LEGAL WAYS TO DIVORCE:

- Do-It-Yourself (Kitchen-Table) Divorce
- Traditional Litigated Divorce
- Mediation (Co-Mediation, Team Mediation)
- Collaborative Divorce

Ask questions of our financial, mental health and legal professionals. All our professionals, specialize in divorce and are trained in both mediation and collaborative divorce.

Note: If none of these dates or times work for you and your spouse, go to CollaborativeDivorceCalifornia.com, and under their “Events” tab, find a Divorce Options® Workshop offered by other Collaborative Divorce practice groups across California. There is so much information that many participants attend more than once to digest it. While the slides are the same, different presenters will have different styles and content. *More Questions?
